Just Like Gold Coin.

For more than fifty years
has PERRY DAVIS' PAIN
KILLER stood the test
against all remedies prepared to eradicate pain, and today stands at the head of the list among the medicines that are so essential to keep at hand in the home.

It is not a new fangle remedy
nor do the proprietors lay claim to any wonderful revelation into the manufacture of this ever popular remedy.

It is perfectly harmless, you need have no fear of becoming habitually inclined to its use.

For Colic, Cramps, Dysentery, Colds, and all painful affections, a few doses will certainly give relief. You cannot afford to be without a bottle
in the house.

Your forefathers used it
and found it beneficial.

Why experiment with some remedy that is new and its effect on the system unknown?

It has many rivals but no
equal.

Price 25c. and 50c. a
bottle.

A Literary Problem.

Salesmen in bookstores are so much accustomed to having people mix up authors and titles that an inquiry for Noah Webster's dictionary no longer disturbs their equanimity. But a clerk in Chicago was surprised not long ago when a young lady came into the store and said
to him:

"I want to buy a present of a book
for a young man."

"Yes, miss," said he. "What kind of a book do you want?"

"Why, a book for a young man."

"Well, but what kind of a young man?"

"Oh, he's tall and has light hair,
and he always wears blue neckties!"— Youth's Companion.

And He Was One.

Jack and Tom when they first went to school were asked what were their names.

Tom, who was first, replied, "Tom,
sir."

"You must not say that, my boy.
You should say Thomas."

Jack determined he would not fall into that mistake, and when he was asked proudly replied, "Jack-ass,"—

Giving Him a Chance.

Hopeful—You believe in fair play,
don't you, ma?

Ma—Indeed I do, my son.

Hopeful—Then you ought to take me along with you today when you go to buy pa's new suit. If I've got to have my clothes made out of his, it's only fair that I should have a say in pickin'
out the goods.—Baltimore News.
